Sponsor I believe they are.

Presider You have been called to a ministry of Worship Leader in this congregation. Will you, as long as you are engaged in this work, perform it with diligence?

Candidate I will.

The Commissioning

Sponsor I present to you this person licensed for ministry of Worship Leader in this diocese.

Antiphon There are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of service, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of working, but it is the same God who inspires them all in everyone.

V. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly:

R. Do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus.

Let us pray (Silence)

Look with favor upon those whom you have called, O Lord, to be Worship Leaders in your Church; and grant that they may be so filled with your Holy Spirit that, seeking your glory and the salvation of souls, they may minister your word with steadfast devotion, and by the constancy of their faith and the innocence of their lives may adorn in all things the doctrine of Christ our Savior; who lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen.

Presider In the Name of God and of this congregation, I commission you [N.] as Licensed Worship Leader [and give you this _____ as a token of your ministry].

Guidelines for Eucharistic Ministers

Eucharistic Ministers are charged with administering the elements at any celebration of the Holy Eucharist.

People selected to administer the Holy Eucharist should be carefully chosen and trained. The candidates must be adult communicants in good standing. They should be ready to make a commitment to this weekly ministry.

Steps for becoming a Eucharistic Minister

1. The rector or vestry selects one or more candidates.
2. Each candidate attends a training workshop for Eucharistic Ministers;
3. The rector or vestry recommends to the bishop that the candidate be licensed as a Eucharistic Minister.

The Bishop will make such appointment for a maximum term of three years, renewable upon the recommendation of the rector or vestry.

Deacons, or other members of the clergy, should exercise oversight of this ministry.

Commissioning

Each Eucharistic Minister shall, upon being licensed, be commissioned in a Sunday worship service.

Guidelines for Eucharistic Visitors

People selected to administer the Holy Eucharist should be carefully chosen and trained. The candidates must be adult communicants in good standing. They should be ready to make a commitment to this weekly ministry and capable of bringing both the presence of the Lord and the fellowship of the congregation to those they serve.

The administration of the sacrament should take place the same day, following the dispersal of the congregation from worship.

When possible, the people to whom the Holy Eucharist is to be administered should be notified in advance and appointments set up.

Appropriate vessels in which the bread and wine are carried to the shut-in(s) should be provided. Each week, at the appropriate Sunday Eucharist, the Eucharistic Visitors and those they shall visit may be mentioned by name in the Prayers of the People.

Each week, before the dismissal from the Sunday Eucharist, the Eucharistic Visitors who are to carry the sacrament that day may go forward to the altar to receive the bread and wine in appropriate containers. They may be sent forth with words such as the following:

Presider      (Name), we send you out to share Communion this week with (Name).

People      May you carry the prayers of all of us as you take this sacrament of Christ's presence.

Presider      May those who receive it from you be strengthened and encouraged in that community we have together in our Lord Jesus Christ.

All                Amen.

The Eucharistic Visitors shall administer the Holy Communion according to the service provided through the diocesan office.

Deacons or other members of the clergy should exercise oversight of this important ministry: receiving feedback about the sick and infirm, providing guidance for the Eucharistic Visitors, and arranging regular gatherings of Eucharistic Visitors for the purpose of mutual sharing and support.
