The Rev. Camie Dewey

Interim, St. Luke's, Buffalo
Standing Committee: Clergy

The Rev. Camie Dewey currently serves as Interim Rector at St. Luke's in Buffalo. A graduate of Seminary of the Southwest, Camie recently returned to Wyoming after serving in the Diocese of Missouri for three years. She grew up in Riverton, attending St. James' and came to love Jesus and the church through diocesan youth events and HR camp. Her background includes music and youth ministry. In addition to parish ministry, Camie has passion for mental health and is currently working on a project on clergy wellness.
