General Convention: Clergy

I am interested in a third term as General Convention Deputy to the triennial General Convention of the Episcopal Church. I served as a Clergy Deputy to the most recent General Convention in Baltimore, where I served on the Privilege and Courtesy Committee. I also served as a Deputy at the 2018 General Convention in Austin and was a member of the World Mission Committee.

As part of my duties as Canon for Mission, Outreach and Evangelism for the Episcopal Church in Wyoming, I serve as a Missional priest in Region IV, serving as priest-in-charge in Rawlins, Encampment and Medicine Bow while assisting Dixon, Saratoga and Canterbury Fellowship as we together focus on new ways of being and doing church.

I have a Bachelor's Degree in Political Science and a Master's Degree in Public Administration from the University of Wyoming and a certificate in Theological Studies from the Seminary of the Southwest Wyoming Iona Initiative. I was ordained into the priesthood in 2015 and am a life-long Episcopalian.

I feel that my experience as a two-time Deputy to General Convention lends value to the team as a more seasoned representative. I am familiar with the legislative committee process and technology that direct our efforts and would be honored to serve the Deputation that will help elect a new Presiding Bishop for the Episcopal Church.
