ROLE SUMMARY/DESCRIPTION

Christ Episcopal Church in Cody, Wyoming, stands at an important point in our journey. We are a congregation with deep roots in our community, a proud tradition of service and worship, and a genuine hunger to deepen our faith. We seek a rector who will walk alongside us, challenge us, and guide us toward renewed spiritual growth. We yearn for worship that challenges us, leadership that models discipleship, and guidance in taking the next steps in our walk with God. We offer a community full of warmth and service, and we are eager for a leader who will help us embrace our call to love God and neighbor more fully.

MINISTRY CONTEXT AND DESIRED SKILLS

WHAT ARE YOUR COMMUNITY'S HOPES FOR THIS POSITION?

Future leaders of our Episcopal worshipping community must embody a vibrant blend of strong authentic faith, which they draw upon in everyday life. We are looking for a dynamic leader with faith to guide, model and teach us how to grow in love of God and neighbor. Ideally, this would be someone who is charismatic and enthusiastic in the pulpit--able to inspire with both word and presence. He/she would be a true shepherd, drawing people in, sparking renewed interest and commitment to life in the church. More specifically, nurturing our youth programs to ignite young spirits as well as exploring intergenerational worship for life-long learning. We hope for an individual gifted in pastoral counseling with a commitment to developing deep relationships with parishioners.

We envision someone who builds community with warmth, authenticity and strategic planning, helping individuals discover their unique gifts and guiding them to grow in service and spirit. Their passion will radiate beyond our walls by developing relationships within the broader Cody community. Most importantly, we desire a deeply spiritual person whose love of God shines through all they do, energizing our parish with faith, purpose and hope.
