

ONLINE RESOURCES FOR SONGS AND HYMNS

The following online resources enable worship planners to preview music, access lyrics, guitar chords, melody lines and full musical scores.

-Song Select by CCLI (Christian Copyright Licensing Int'l) – online resource for songs and hymns; the diocese has secured a subscription for churches to access this resource.

See: <https://songselect.ccli.com/>

CCLI SongSelect is the definitive source for licensed content that draws from more than 100,000 songs of worship. You'll discover and can download current and traditional audio previews, lyrics, and transposable chord sheets, lead sheets and vocal sheets. SongSelect puts the great songs of worship within reach - through direct access to their extensive library of sheet music and media. You can also search for songs by themes. Each song includes a preview of the song, lyrics, guitar chord sheets, lead sheets (melody lines), and vocal parts for singers.

One of the useful resources they provide is SongSelect Liturgy Planning. It offers carefully chosen songs from well-respected curators for each Sunday of the year. You can adjust the formatting and note size, use auto-transpose to easily change songs to any key, and reprint copies. Songs can be emailed to your musicians for printing and rehearsing. The SongSelect Liturgy Planning tool is designed to enrich our liturgy throughout the year and simplify service planning.

-Hymnary.org – ecumenical online database of hymns and hymnals; includes access to most modern hymnals and music. Basic tools are free and you can select your church's hymnal in addition to countless others to search via topics, lectionary, Scripture texts etc. If it's not a free "Public Domain" hymn there are options for purchasing copies of the music. The site is hosted by Calvin College's Calvin Institute of Christian Worship and Christian Classics Ethereal Library. The searchable database contains over one million hymn tunes and texts and incorporates the Dictionary of North American Hymnology.
