

the Episcopal Church in Wyoming

The Rev. Ron Philips

Holy Trinity, Thermopolis
Disciplinary Board: Clergy

Ron is currently the Priest of the Congregation at Holy Trinity Church in Thermopolis. He also manages their Help Center at Common Ground outreach program.

Ron graduated with the first class from the Iona Collaborative and was ordained in 2014. He returned to Iona following graduation to serve as a mentor for three years. He also served on the Foundation Board of Directors for two terms. During his second term he was chairman of the Grants Committee.

In 1993 Ron returned to his hometown, Thermopolis, with his wife, Audrey, and son, Gavin. He worked as a journalist and photographer for eight years before being hired by the local school district as the auditorium technician and head speech and debate coach. Ron also taught Interpersonal Communications and Public Speaking for Central Wyoming College, and managed the General Equivalency Diploma (GED) program in Hot Springs County. Ron retired from the school district in 2014.