

the Episcopal Church in Wyoming

The Rev. Susan Dyer

St. Barnabas', Saratoga

Disciplinary Board: Clergy- 2 year term

Susan Dyer retired from parish ministry in June of 2019 after serving as the priest at St. Barnabas, Saratoga for 9 years. Previous to that she served as a vocational deacon in Colorado for 10 years. She received her certificate in Spiritual Direction from Benet Hill Monastery in 2019 and has offered herself as a spiritual director to the Diocese of Wyoming and beyond since then. She has served the past six years on the Standing Committee of the Diocese, and will retire from that position October 2022. In addition, she will be installed as the President of the Daughter's of the King in the Diocese of Wyoming.